

By enrolling in a program of study at PERA, the student agrees:

- To fulfil the necessary conditions for acceptance and entry into the program, including submitting authentic original documentation of all his or her relevant educational and other qualifications and certifications of equivalency for assessment by PERA admissions staff at the time of enrolment.
- To comply with all immigration, entry permit and visa requirements necessary to enter the country and pursue studies at PERA, as well as with all health requirements and policies mandated by the government and/or PERA, including, but not limited to vaccinations, COVID testing, self-isolation, quarantine, contact tracing, wearing masks, and social distancing.
- To meet all expenses, including fees and any additional charges prescribed for your program, in accordance with the payment schedules specified by PERA. (Students in debt to PERA may not be allowed to continue in the program or retain their scholarship awards.)
- To comply with all of PERA's Rules, Regulations, Procedures and Codes of Conduct, as issued under the authority of the PERA Management and the GAU Academic Board, and as outlined in the Student Handbook, the PERA website, the PERA Photography, Video and Social Media Policy, in addition to other department-specific documents. (See: Codes of Conduct; Student Handbook; Photography, Video and Social Media Policy)
- To engage in and maintain a culture of mutual respect between staff and students.
- To be actively involved in and committed to all areas of the program, and fully engaged and responsible for their own learning.
- To be prepared both physically and mentally for all rehearsals and performances in addition to the scheduled classes, and to punctually attend all timetabled activities, including rehearsals and performances.
- To adhere to the Attendance Policy outlined in the Student Handbook, fully understanding the mitigating circumstances for extensions and referrals, and to consult with PERA staff should any such circumstances arise. (See: "Mitigating Circumstances" in the Student Handbook)
- To request appropriate authorisation from PERA to attend extra-curricular activities such as interviews, auditions, external dance projects, special events, internship opportunities, artistic residencies and other associated professional development activities which require an absence from a timetabled session. (See: "Extra-Curricular Activity" and "Approved Absence" in the Student Handbook)
- To ensure that all assignments are completed on time and to attend the presentation of assessed practical classes and all performances and critiques.
- To respect PERA's facilities and equipment, following all the procedures specified for their use, and to adhere to policies concerning the return of shared resources including equipment, costumes, library materials, and/or other property of PERA.
